

RACISM

It hurts
people
feelings.

Racism affects young people because children are being segregated and teased because they are from a different race.

This affects
people today
because of what they hear and learn from the people who are raising them.

This affect them by making the ashamed
of their race, sex, etc.

Everybody
should just get along and live
as a big happy
family.