- How to keep the community clean and ways to avoid violence.
- Drugs, health, and sex.

3. What kind of topics do you want to discuss in the future?

- Gangs, sex, and wars
- Drugs, sex, and violence
- I don't know.
- Working to make our concerns heard.
- How life changed. Comparing the past and the future. How new situations are solved.
- How to stop sexually transmitted diseases or STDs.
- Relationships and teen talk.

4. Do you think workshops like this should be held more often? Why?

- Yes, because you can express yourself.
- Yes, because this is a good workshop for children.
- Yes, because they help us.
- Yes, because we need more kids to be involved in good programs like this.
- Yes, because it makes me feel good that I can take action little by little to help the environment.
- Yes, so that the youth can express how they feel.
- Yes, I think it should be like maybe every two months.
- Yes, because it keeps kids off the streets and keeps young people informed on what is going on in their community.

Yes, because it helps kids get things off their chest.
