

VIOLENCE

It is a bad example for young people.

It hurts people.

CAUSE

Television and radio motivates people to act violent including sexual abuse and gang violence.

Kids watching television imitate people they admire.

AFFECT

This issue affects young people because most of their family members are being killed

SOLUTION

Be the bigger person by walking away from the situation.

More police in neighborhoods would equal fewer troublemakers.

Resolve problems without violence.

We can take action and speak out against violence on the television and radio.
